

PengWine™

Unique, boutique vinos from Chile

You are invited to an elegant winemaker's dinner. PengWine and Amore's Chef Langan will create a meal to remember featuring NW ingredients that showcase four character-filled Chilean wines.

When: Thursday, July 16 at 7pm

Where: Amore Restaurant
2301 5th Avenue
(the corner of 5th Ave & Bell St)
Seattle, WA 98121

Cost: Four course meal and wine pairings, $75/person

Questions: (206) 770-0606

RSVP to make a reservation for this fabulous winemaker's dinner (space is limited).

Delight your palette!

About Amore Restaurant

Seattle native and owner Chef Sean Langan brings a passion for cooking and serving signature entrée's that will make your pallet and taste buds sing for joy.

Amore's food is prepared in a green-friendly environment with all natural, organic ingredients. Amore symbolizes the passion of art with food, including the décor and ambiance of Amore nestled in Seattle's Belltown. Learn more at www.TasteofAmore.com.

Winemaker's dinner at Amore

The Menu

Appetizer

Duck breast wrapped in roasted eggplant with crispy sage and olive tapenade.

Rockhopper Reserve - 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon/Carménère

Carménère adds a spice and earthiness to the great fruits and texture of the Cabernet.

Salad

Arugula and tangerine salad with almonds, gorgonzola and honey, poppy seed dressing.

Fairy Reserve - 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon/Malbec Rosé

Notes of strawberry and kiwi make Fairy a deliciously refreshing cocktail wine. Fruit and finishes smooth with a touch of cinnamon.

Entrée

Baked white fish with pear tomatoes and asparagus tips, served over rustic red bliss potatoes.

Magellan Reserve - 2005 Chardonnay (unoaked)

Crisp tropical fruit abounds on the nose and repeat on the palate with this unoaked Chardonnay.

Dessert

Chef-forged chocolate truffles.

Humboldt Reserve - 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon Blend

A favorite among reviewers worldwide, Humboldt is a rich blend of five varieties that were carefully chosen to feature layers of aromas.

About PengWine

PengWine is an award-winning producer of unique wine blends from Chile's renowned Maipo Valley. From our bright Magellan Chardonnay to our complex Rockhopper featuring Chile's signature Carménère, each wine captures the flavors and complexities of this incredible country.

Each wine is named after a different penguin who makes its nest along the country's shoreline. PengWine is only available at select retail stores and will be on sale at this special winemaker's dinner. Learn more about all the wines at www.PengWine.com.

